

The Religious Studies Department and Rufus Monroe and Sofie Hougaard Paine Lectures in Religion Present:
The Fifth Distinguished Lecture on Religion and Public Life
by

Stephanie Kaza

Director of the Environmental Program
University of Vermont

Responding to Environmental Challenges: Insights from Zen
Buddhism

Thursday, April 18 • 7:30 p.m.
Fischer Auditorium, Gannett Hall
University of Missouri-Columbia Campus
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

The lecture will be followed by a reception.

For more information, see <http://religiousstudies.missouri.edu/news/paine.html> or contact the Department of Religious Studies, 221 Arts & Science Building, (573) 882-4769, rsinfo@missouri.edu

Co-sponsored by:
Center on Religion & the Professions
College of Arts and Science
Department of Anthropology
Department of History
Department of Sociology